Boddie Family Data Given In Answer

Answer to Query 1133 (d), Mrs. T. A. Coxon, January 3, 1932—William Boddie (1635-1717) migrated to Virginia in 1661 and settled on his grant of more than 10,000 acres of land in Isle of Wight, which land had been granted him for transporting 200 immigrants from England to Virginia. By his second wife, Elizabeth, who died in 1697, he had a daughter, Elizabeth, who married Matthews, and a son John (1685-1720), who married Elizabeth Thomas. After his death, his widow married Col. John Dawson.

John and Elizabeth (Thomas) Boddie had William (1710-1772), who married Mary Bennett, daughter of Capt. William Bennett, of the Northampton Regiment; William, a lieutenant in the same regiment, and John, who married Elizabeth Hilliard. William and Mary (Bennett) Boddie had five children: Nathan (1732-1797), who married Chloe Crudup; Temperance, who married Capt. Solomon Williams; Elijah, who died unmarried; Willis, who married Catherine Barnes, and William, who married Martha Jones, daughter of John Jones, Esq., of Halifax.

(The undersigned is descended from two of the children of Nathan and Chloe (Crudup) Boddie and derives his name by virtue of his descent from William and Martha (Jones) Boddie.)

Josiah Crudup came from Wales to Virginia prior to 1706, for his wife, Mary, a widow, made her will in Halifax County, N. C., in 1760, and it was probated in 1761. Josiah and Mary Crudup had one son, John, who married Mourning Dixon (1722-1781), daughter of Thomas and Penelope Dixon. John and Mourning (Dixon) Crudup had four children, the third Chloe (1745-1781), who married Nathan Boddie.

(These facts may be found stated in "Boddie and Allied Families," by John T. Boddie and John B. Boddie, privately printed in 1918.)

(c) John Hilliard was the first of this family in North Carolina. He settled in Northampton County about 1728 and married Elizabeth Pottle. Their son, William, married Julia Newsom and moved to Halifax County, N. C., where he died in 1755. Their son, Isaac (1738-1790), married Leah Crawford, daughter of Carew and Elizabeth (Kearney) Crawford. Their son, James Hilliard (1768-1832), married Mourning Boddie (1778-1847), daughter of Nathan and Chloe (Crudup) Boddie. Temperance, daughter of James and Mourning (Boddie) Hilliard, married John Buxton Williams, Esq., of Warren County, N. C.—WILLIAM W. BODDIE, 31 Bee Street, Charleston, S. C.

BODDIE (d)—William Boddie came to Virginia in 1661, secured a large land grant in Isle of Wight County. His descendant, William Boddie, born 1710, resided in the colony of Carolina, was an officer in the Colonial Militia 20 years, married Mary Bennett (daughter of Captain William Bennett, of Northampton Regiment of Virginia.) Their daughter, Temperance Boddie, married Solomon Williams, North Carolina Revolutionary soldier. Nathan Boddie, of Nash County, N. C., member of the Provincial Congress, Halifax, North Carolina, 1776, married Chloe Crudup. I desire to connect up family line between William Boddie, the immigrant to Virginia in 1661; William Boddie, born 1710, and Nathan Boddie. Desire ancestry of Chloe Crudup, wife of Nathan Boddie.
